Mario Eric Moss, LL.M. is an Attorney-at-Law admitted to the New York State Bar and German Diplomjurist with over fifteen years of legal experience in the U.S. He holds a Master of Laws in U.S. Legal Studies and received his German law degree from Eberhard-Karls-Universität Tübingen.

Mr. Moss's practice focuses exclusively on U.S. Immigration and Nationality Law matters, including all types of U.S. visas and "Green Cards", as well as (dual) citizenship cases. His international background, legal education and experience provide him with a special understanding for the unique perspective and concerns of his international clients and their immigration-related needs.

Mr. Moss has organized and participated as a panel member in various international business and legal seminars both in the U.S. and Europe and is affiliated with other international lawyers with offices in the U.S., Germany and other European countries that handle various international and domestic legal matters. Mr. Moss has been a regular guest lecturer on Comparative Law at ABA-accredited law schools and is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA). He was born and raised in the Stuttgart area in Germany, is fluent in German and English, and proficient in French.

Mr. Moss is a member of the Board of Directors of the German American Business Association's (GABA) Southern California Chapter, and GABA Regional Chair of Orange County, California.
